Vineyard

The 2015 vintage suffered hugely because an error in spraying led to a massive infestation of powdery mildew.

John Lockwood of Enfield Wine Company has purchased grapes from Heron Lake Vineyard. Beginning in 2018, he took charge of farming the vineyard and utilizing the harvest. He has enjoyed two prominent press features: one in the New York Times, and one in the San Francisco Chronicle whereby his 2012 Heron Lake wine was named, "Chardonnay of the Year".

John Lockwood also budded-over Rows 92 and 93 to Cabernet Sauvignon, with an eye to seeing how that varietal would do in the Heron Lake Vineyard terroir and microclimate.

Cattle

Five Dot Land and Cattle has held exclusive grazing rights at Green Valley Ranch for many years; its current agreement expires in 2023. Rent, based on actual use each year, was $9,789 in 2018; in 2019 ~$7,500 is expected.

Part 1: NAPA

In Napa, GVR has four buildable parcels. The development status and potential varies parcel by parcel.

Each lot is zoned AW--"Agricultural Watershed," which permits:

- A single family dwelling unit
- A second unit, attached or detached from the main unit, subject to size restrictions.
- Various other uses (SEE Sec. 18.20 Napa County Code)

Separate conservation easements recorded against each parcel limit development to a defined development zone of about 38 acres, shown on the map. These easements may also limit development that might otherwise be permitted under the code.

Parcel Name & APN	Acres	Existing Improvements	Developmental Potential
Lake House (S) 147-050-030	260.90	Lake House	Restricted by Conservation Easement
Square 147-050-010	40.00	None	Restricted by Conservation Easement
Waterfall 147-020-040	124.10	None	Restricted by Conservation Easement
Total Solano Acres	425.00

Part 2: SOLANO

In Solano, GVR owns three parcels, but only one is buildable

Solano zoning for each parcel is W160: Watershed, 160-acre minimum lot size. There is not enough land for two buildable parcels in Solano. Commercial winemaking is restricted in this zone.

Southern Tip, 2.5 contiguous acres in Napa, does not credit towards this 160 acre min. Waterfall parcel is not contiguous.

The conservation easement for the Lake House parcel limits building to one single family residence within the area shown in the adjacent map. This easement does not permit a second residence on this lot.

The conservation easements permit grape growing, wine making, and cave storage on the Lake House parcel, but not the other Solano parcels.

- The current owners have held the property since 1978, resulting in a low Prop 13 basis. However as shown above the Williamson Act (WA) values are even lower, and taxes pick up the lower of Prop 13 or WA values.
- In Napa both Prop 13 and WA values are reported publicly. Solano issues an annual letter showing both values,* but only the value used for assessment purposes is reported publicly.

*Each of these four parcels has its own Conservation Easement and Williamson Act contract, plus protected rights across the Tuteur ranch shown as easement parcels. No commercial farming including grapes is permitted on any Napa parcel.
