

Event Luxuries

LA Luxuries has access to over 1,000 private mansions, and architecturally significant estates in greater Los Angeles.

As the premier creative designing many exclusive Los Angeles events and phenomenal celebrity weddings, our production planner has become the most wanted lifestyle event planner in Los Angeles, and the exclusive partner of LA Luxuries. Our planner and his talented staff of organizers and designers are known for their graceful, avant garde, and luxurious creations. He is well known for the most creative designs and sophisticated productions. From grand awards shows such as the Oscar's, Grammy's and Emmy's, to incredible weddings, private celebrity events and Hollywood premiers.

Creating one of a kind custom floral is his specialty. Whether an elegant pave, a traditional design or a sculptural display. Jordan is proud to have personally worked with Kevin at his own wedding.

Jordan and his partners will attend estate walk-throughs in order to find the right design and space. The team will be the first to arrive and the last to leave the production. We are onsite at all times and can speedily handle any situation that can come about. Jordan is available as a consultant to help clientele on guest accommodation, event permits, transportation, technical walk through showings and signing any venue contracts. Our event planner can help with planning, event production, and event design.
