

Favorite Spots Around Town

Best Coffee

Red Berry Coffee Bar

A popular hotspot serving high quality roasts employing European style methods

Best Brunch

Bumble

Farm-to-table dining, set in a sunny cottage for a relaxed and cheerful ambiance

Best Dinner

Chef Chu's

A neighborhood staple of 50 years, this innovative Chinese restaurant has also become a celebrity sighting hotspot

Best Bar

The Post

Seasonal craft cocktails pair with creative American comfort foods at this recently remodeled local gathering place

Small village atmosphere in the heart of Silicon Valley

Welcome to

Los Altos & Los Altos Hills

Tree-lined streets and a tangibly rustic feel define these bedroom communities in the Bay Area. The hometowns of technology leaders old and new, Los Altos and Los Altos Hills have a rich legacy of innovation. Residents enjoy world-class shopping and dining options as well as the ability to escape to many outdoor open spaces. Renowned schools and a tight-knit community feel continue to make Los Altos and Los Altos Hills the premier destinations of choice in Silicon Valley.

Highlights

1. Shopping and dining in the charming Downtown
2. Hometown of technology leaders such as Steve Jobs
3. Museums to honor the town's agricultural past
4. Open Space Preserves and Redwood Groves